To Goodwill of Orange County:

Thank you so much for supporting the 2017 Goodwill of Orange County Faley Games hosted by California State University Fullerton.

At this year's event, thousands of students with developmental disabilities from over 100 schools across Orange County participated in the games with the support of high school student volunteers. Thanks to your generous investment, over 2,500 of these special athletes were able to enjoy a number of athletic, fun, and unique activities.

It is important to know that this event is 100% donation and volunteer driven, meaning your support is directly responsible for making this wonderful event possible. Your donation of $5,250.00 helped us to create a special and successful day of fun, friendship and non-competitive games for Special Education students.

Should you have any questions about the impact of your gift or need anything from us here at Goodwill of Orange County, please feel free to contact Philip "Lux" Fukuto at (714) 547-6308 ext. 352 or philipf@ocgoodwill.org. Your trust in our team, programs, and services, help us to remain dedicated to our mission and continue to prove to the community that people are more powerful than the barriers they face. On behalf of Goodwill of Orange County, we thank you for Creating Goodwill in our community and making our mission your mission.

Sincerely,
